

Dear Friends,

It gives me immense pleasure as I share with you another issue of UP Journal of Ophthalmology. The articles incorporated are written by author's of national and international repute and I am sure that you will enjoy reading them.

The annual conference of the society is going to be held at Lucknow and organizing team has left no stone unturned to make it a grand success. The secretary and chairman scientific committee with their team have put in all efforts to make a comprehensive program and I congratulate all of them for the fantastic work.

Looking forward to meeting you all.....
